

1721-1724

Innocent XIII (1655-1724) was pope.
He restored Naples and Sicily to their de facto possessor, the Emperor
Charles VI, and recognized the claims of James, the Old Pretender, to the British throne in the hope of a Catholic revival there.

1721-1724

245th pope Innocent XIII
Rome. Full of zeal for introducing salutary measures of reform,
but surrounded by political difficulties.

1721

Spanish soldiers again arrived
at the site of Ft. St Louis (Porcitas Creek)
(TX) and built El Presidio Nuestra Señora de Loreto de la Bahía, to guard against further foreign incursions into Spanish territory. They occupied this site for 4 years, then moved their presidio to a site near present day Victoria and later to GOULAD

Spanish soldiers again arrived
on the site of Fort St. Joes (Victoria Co. Tx)
and built El Presidio Nuestra Señora
de Loreto de la Bahía to guard against foreign incursions into Spanish territory.
They occupied this Garcitas Creek site
for 4 yrs., then moved their Presidio
to a site near present day Victoria
and later moved to GOLIAAD.

1721

Belisle, a high official
in Louisiana (French)

headed an expedition to
MATAGORDA BAY, TX

This was unsuccessful
and was the last effort
of the French to colonize
Texas

1721

A Lutheran missionary from Denmark sailed to Greenland in 1721 looking for the old Norse colony. He stayed a minister to the Eskimo people

1721

Archibald & Elinor Stork moved from Maine to Londonderry, New Hampshire

1721

In Spring Archibald & Eleanor Stark
moved from Maine to Newfield, N.H.
(now Londonderry.)

1722- their child Anna was born.

1721/1722

The Penn. legislature said that they were distressed of late ... that
the inhabitants of every degree
were reduced to the greatest straits. Debts could not be discharged nor payments made.
Rents of houses fell many
where of deserted. Artificers & Traders were obliged to quit

the Caunting.

In desperation the colonies began to invent money for themselves.

At first they made existing commodities the official standard. In South Carolina, rice, peas, beef, and even pork were used as monetary commodities.

1721-1735

~~1912~~ Dates - J-BK

YONG-CHING was emperor of China

1721

1912 Dates J-BK

Russia restored Finland to Sweden